Go around the group and have students answer: "What is something you have that you would put up a serious fight for--even risk your life for--if someone tried to take it away?" (This can be a material thing, like a gold chain, or something intangible, like a good reputation.) Then ask: "Why is this so important to you?" Return to top. Standing Up Have students describe a time they felt they ...

Levels for learning models allow education to pivot at any time between distance, hybrid and in-person learning. These levels will be determined by the impacts of a changing health situation (e.g. number of COVID-19 cases per 100,000 people over 14 days in Thurston County), available resources, and direction from the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Gov. Jay Inslee, and ...

It is a true testament to the dedication our parents have to the education of their children that so many of our Model Students are Remote Learners. This means they need to get up early and put their uniforms on to attend Zoom Meetings and behave accordingly at those meetings, along with completing their online work and their packets. We are so proud of you all! The criteria for being a Model ...
